Momentum grows to limit vacation rentals

Speaker links short-term rentals to escalating housing prices

BY STEFANIE JACKSON
Eastern Shore Post

Wachapreague's approach to regulating short-term vacation rental homes is becoming a template for other Eastern Shore towns that want to minimize the adverse impacts of the commercial enterprises.

Exmore Town Manager Robert Duer said the town's national motel chains are losing revenue due to the proliferation of short-term rental homes in Northampton County, which has allowed these businesses by right — without a permit — since 2019.

"Our motels are suffering," Duer said at the Jan. 8 Exmore Town Council meeting.

Norfolk State University Concert Choir to perform

The 45-member Norfolk State University Concert Choir will perform at Hungars Episcopal Church, Machipongo, on Sunday, Feb. 4, at 4 p.m.

A meet-the-artists reception will follow in the church parish house.

Founded in 1945, the ensemble is currently under the direction of Harlan Zachery Jr., NSU director of choral activities.

National performances have been widespread and include appearances at the National Cathedral and the White House.

The choir is known for the beauty of its choral tone and the ability to render exemplary renditions of works of the great masters, as well as Negro spirituals. Its members believe that “for every season there is a song, for every day there is a melody, and for every moment, there is harmony.”

The Hungars Concert performances are free and open to the public. A free will offering will be accepted to sustain the series in the future. Hungars is located at 10107 Bayside Road, Machipongo.

Man guilty in 2021 murder of Brian Daley

BY NANCY DRURY DUNCAN
Eastern Shore Post

An Accomack County man pleaded guilty to the murder of Brian Lee Daley, the Onancock cabinetmaker who was slain and robbed after being lured ostensibly into a tryst almost three years ago.

Brandon Jamar Beach, 33, of Onancock, pleaded guilty to second-degree murder, robbery, credit card larceny, maliciously shooting at an occupied vehicle, maliciously shooting at an occupied dwelling, and use of a firearm, as part of an agreement with the Accomack County Commonwealth's Attorney's office.

The terms of the plea agreement were that Beach's first-degree murder charge and reckless handling of a firearm charges were not prosecuted.

Circuit Judge H. Thomas Padrick ordered a presentence report be prepared and set Beach's sentencing for April 4.

Daley was 49 at the time of his March 7, 2021, murder.

At 10 p.m. that day, the Accomack County Sheriff's Office received a report of gunshots fired on Jackson Street in Onancock.

When deputies arrived, they found a white pickup truck that had driven off the road into the front yard of a house.

Inside, they found Daley unresponsive and in a state of undress with multiple stab and gunshot wounds.

When police questioned Daley's wife, she told them he had gone to the nearby home of Antoinette Satchell and Brandon Beach on 8 Jackson St.

When authorities arrived, they found no one but saw what appeared to be fresh bloodstains on the porch and shell casings, blood, and tissue on a mattress and bedding inside.

Beach and Satchell, his girlfriend, were arrested a short time later.

They were found in a car in the parking lot of a motel in Onley.

Credit cards belonging to Daley were in the car along with a 9mm pistol and a bloody knife.

Beach told police Daley and Satchell were in bed together. He said he had two knives in his hands and began stabbing Daley, who got up and ran downstairs.

He told them he shot at Daley as he ran from the house and drove off in his truck.

Commonwealth's Attorney Spencer Morgan said statements from Beach and Satchell along with evidence showed "Daley was lured to the Jackson Street house for a physical encounter with Satchell, where they intended to rob him, killing him in the process."

He said the pair put Daley's clothes, cellphone, and wallet into a black trash bag and threw it out on a road near Wachapreague.

Beach took police to that location and the items were recovered.

He said Satchell told him they needed to rob people because she needed money for an upcoming court case involving her three children.

Satchell pleaded guilty to first degree murder and robbery in this case in June 2023 and is set to be sentenced on March 7.

Short-term rentals

right, without a special-use permit, was “short-sighted,” said Duer, who was the only Northampton supervisor to oppose the legalization of short-term rentals five years ago.

“If you rob your houses of your families, you’re robbing your schools,” he added. “Nobody’s going to live in those houses in the wintertime.”

Wachapreague’s ordinance that prohibits short-term vacation rental homes in residential areas is “perfect,” Duer said.

He recommended that Exmore adopt the same ordinance.

The Wachapreague ordinance allows only five short-term rental homes in the town, which has a population of about 250.

Northampton concerned citizens continue to clamor for the county to regulate short-term vacation rental homes, without results.

Sheryl Dalessio, of Hungars Beach Road, Eastville, told Northampton supervisors at their Jan. 9 meeting that a minor special-use permit should be required to operate a short-term rental home.

“This does not pose a major obstacle in the permitting process,” she said.

Because adjacent property owners must be notified when a neighbor applies for a special-use permit, Dalessio said the permitting process “allows members of the community to have a voice.”

“Anything less would only serve to silence a dissenting opinion,” Dalessio said.

M.J. Golibart, an Eastville resident who operates a short-term rental business, disagreed.

Requiring a special-use permit for a short-term vacation rental “injects an amount of uncertainty in the process that is really ... untenable for most people,” he said.

Permit applicants must pay fees and often are required to invest additional money and time in projects that are not guaranteed to be approved.

“There’s a lot of red tape and bureaucracy involved” with either a major or minor special-use permit, Golibart said.

He believes Northampton County could find a way to regulate short-term rental homes without requiring special-use permits.

“There’s really nothing special about renting a room in one’s home. It’s been done here on the Eastern Shore for centuries,” Golibart said.

Debbie Campbell, of Silver Beach, spoke as a former Salisbury, Md., town council member and a professional with experience in community development, housing finance, and affordable housing.

She said that when Salisbury allowed something similar to short-term vacation rental homes, “it was a disaster. We lost our city. I don’t think we’ll ever get it back.”

“What you do is you create a commercial ... valuation model in what had been housing stock for families. And all of a sudden, the housing prices go up because the market is pricing them based on their value as a commercial enterprise,” Campbell said.

She noted that short-term vacation rental homes also compete with hotels and motels that “have invested a lot of money to be here, in all of their studies and their permitting and their engineering and their construction.”

Campbell advocated for “truth in zoning” and for Northampton County to adhere to its comprehensive plan.

She said, “When you move into a community, for instance, a single-family neighborhood, you have a right to expect that certain things are not going to happen.”

SERVING VIRGINIA'S EASTERN SHORE

THE PAPER'S POSITION

RC&D Council served important purpose

It was a behind-the-scenes group quietly doing discreet but important work. The nonprofit Eastern Shore of Virginia Resource Conservation and Development Council, established in 1974, and others like it nationwide were geared to allow residents to develop and implement plans to improve their communities.

Among the RC&D's benefits was that, as a nonprofit, it could secure grants not available to municipalities. The council's initiatives included improving water quality, establishing living shoreline demonstration projects, and coordinating the Eastern Shore of Virginia Watershed Roundtable.

But federal funding for the council ended 13 years ago. Still, the local RC&D soldiered on with a part-time coordinator, continuing to make a difference on the Eastern Shore.

The RC&D played a key role in achieving large-scale projects on the Eastern Shore, including dredging local waterways to ensure they remain accessible, improving harbors in waterfront towns, and installing the original seawall on Tangier Island.

But recently the council didn't have a director and was unsuccessful in securing grants to keep it going. The local RC&D closed its doors just like it operated — without a lot of fanfare or recognition. It was the last RC&D Council in Virginia.

That's a shame. Its importance and contributions over the last half-century certainly merited increased funding from local governments.

That increased funding would have allowed it to seek more grants to solve some of the Eastern Shore's problems, of which there are many. But now, there is one less group trying to solve them.

She'd move into a mobile home in 'a Parksley minute'

To the editor:

I am writing in support of the recent letter from Donna Wallace regarding mobile homes and their future existence on the Eastern Shore of Virginia.

I guess I am technically a come-here. But my mother was born and raised as a Hickman from Horntown and my father was born and raised as a Taylor from Onley.

I spent all my summers in Horntown and Pungoteague, riding down from Claymont, Del., with my parents.

After college in Harrisonburg, my career was in Fairfax County. I purchased a used mobile home in an established park along Route 1 in Hybla Valley.

The Fairfax Board of Supervisors treated mobile home owners terribly.

I wrote a letter to the Fairfax supervisors and told them that I was tired of being treated as a county cockroach.

That fired them up and they named me to the county study regarding "trailers," as they called our homes.

After numerous worthless meetings, I told owners in my park that they were going to remove all the parks along the Route 1 corridor.

I used my years in my mobile home to save toward the purchase of a townhome.

These mobile home parks are for people like Donna and her husband and myself to live a good life without being burdened with so much debt that we couldn't afford to do anything else.

Living in that home was the most comfortable living of all my homes.

We moved to Parksley in 2000 following retirement. I told my husband that I knew the perfect place to retire.

But if we could downsize to a mobile home now without the threat of our counties removing mobile home parks—we would do it in a Parksley minute.

Speaker Scott's journey to this position was preceded by extreme highs and lows, but the constant support and encouragement of his family, especially his wife, brought him to where he is today. He received many accolades and much support from both the Republican and Democratic members of the House and pledged to work with both parties for the good of all citizens of the Commonwealth of Virginia. We expect a heavy workload as an unprecedented number of bills have been filed in the short period of time since the November election. The speaker has selected me to serve on the following committees: General Laws, Agriculture, Chesapeake and Natural Resources, Privileges and Elections, and Appropriations. I have had the privilege to work on all of these committees in the past except General Laws, and I look forward to working with the other delegates in this area. Subcommittees have not been assigned yet, but once the committees meet (which will be within the next week), subcommittees will be determined. I will continue to update you weekly on all of the activities and actions taken on bills that are being proposed. Thank you again for electing me as your representative, and I look forward to meeting the needs of the residents of the district. Please feel free to contact me at 804-698-1000 or at 757-824-3456.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC OF AN APPLICATION BY VIRGINIA-AMERICAN WATER COMPANY, FOR A GENERAL INCREASE IN RATES
CASE NO. PUR-2023-00194

On November 1, 2023, Virginia-American Water Company ("Virginia-American" or "Company") filed with the State Corporation Commission ("Commission") an application ("Application") for a general increase in rates. The Company filed its Application pursuant to Chapter 10 of Title 56 of the Code of Virginia ("Code") and the Commission's Rules Governing Utility Rate Applications and Annual Informational Filings of Investor-owned Gas and Water Utilities.

The Company requests authority to increase its rates to produce additional annual jurisdictional sales revenues of $19.7 million, a 30.16% increase over present pro forma revenues. Virginia-American states that this increase includes an annual water service rate increase of $15.2 million, or 29.00%, and a wastewater service rate increase of $4.5 million, or 34.88%. The Company indicates that this rate request is based on a 10.95% proposed return on common equity.

The rates proposed for water and wastewater service in this Application are as follows:

General Metered Water Service, effective on and after May 1, 2024 (Applicable to Alexandria, Prince William Water, Hopewell, and Eastern (including Goddard Systems) Districts):

Table with 2 columns: Meter Size, Proposed Rates. Rows include 5/8", 3/4", 1", 1 1/2", 2", 3", 4", 6", 8", 10", 12", 16" meters.

Table with 3 columns: Class, Rate Block, Proposed Rates. Rows include Residential (First 2,000 GPM, Over 2,000 GPM), Commercial (First 2,000 GPM, Over 2,000 GPM), Industrial Potable (First 2,000 GPM, Next 13,000 GPM, Next 2,229,000 GPM, Next 5,236,000 GPM, Next 37,400,000 GPM, Over 44,880,000 GPM).

Table with 3 columns: Class, Rate Block, Proposed Rates. Rows include Small (First 7,480,000 GPM, Over 7,480,000 GPM), Large (First 7,480,000 GPM, Over 7,480,000 GPM).

Wastewater, effective on and after May 1, 2024 (Applicable to Prince William Wastewater District):

Table with 2 columns: Meter Size, Proposed Rates. Rows include 5/8", 3/4", 1", 1 1/2", 2", 3", 4", Unmetered.

Table with 2 columns: Rate Block, Proposed Rates. Rows include First 2,000 GPM, Over 2,000 GPM.

Water service in and around the Town of Waverly, effective on and after June 1, 2024:

Table with 2 columns: Meter Size, Proposed Rates. Rows include 5/8", 3/4", 1", 1 1/2", 2", 3", 4", 6", 8", 10", 12", 16" meters.

Table with 3 columns: Class, Rate Block, Proposed Rates. Rows include Residential (First 2,000 GPM, Over 2,000 GPM), Commercial (First 2,000 GPM, Over 2,000 GPM).

In its Application, Virginia-American proposes to complete its third and final phase of the rate consolidation that moves the Company's district-specific rates for water service to a consolidated statewide single tariff pricing ("STP") rate structure over the course of three general rate cases. The Company states that its proposal recovers each class's revenue requirement through a single set of statewide minimum service charge rates and through volumetric rates that are specific to each rate class. Virginia-American proposes that the final phase of consolidating the Company's Purchase Water Surcharge ("PWS") occur at the PWS's next rate change following the issuance of a final order in this proceeding, as the PWS adjusts biannually on the first of January and June.

The Company further requests that the Commission approve consolidated service connection fees across the Company's service territories. Specifically, Virginia-American is proposing a consolidated $2,000 service connection fee for 3/4" service lines. Virginia-American states that it does not propose implementing the consolidated fee until after a final order is issued in this proceeding approving a final service connection fee and will continue to apply its current service connection fees during the period interim rates are in effect.

The Company proposes a revenue decoupling mechanism ("RDM") that it states is an alternative rate design mechanism that will function as an automatic rate adjustment clause. Virginia-American states that the RDM compares the revenues collected under the traditional customer-facing rate design with the revenues that would have been collected through a straight fixed variable pricing rate design on a forward-looking basis and accrues the differences to be either credited to customers or collected from customers at a later time. The Company further states that it would make a filing with the Commission on or before January 31 each year, and Commission Staff ("Staff") and other parties would have 60 days to review any necessary reconciliation amount that would then be charged from April 1 through December 31 of that calendar year under the proposed RDM tariff. The Company proposes the RDM become effective after a final order in this proceeding approving the RDM.

Virginia-American also proposes a universal affordability tariff for water and wastewater service that would provide discounts both to the basic meter charge and to the volumetric charges on participating customers' bills whose bills for Basic Water Service are expected to exceed 2% of household income. Should the Commission approve the proposed universal affordability tariff, the Company requests that the final approved residential volumetric rates in this proceeding be calculated to incorporate recovery from non-participating customers of the amount of discounts provided based on an assumed 10% participation. Virginia-American further requests that it be permitted to defer the difference between the assumed discount incorporated into final rates and the actual discount provided, and the Company states that any deferred amounts would be reconciled annually and recovered or credited to customers through the Company's proposed RDM tariff. The Company also requests authority to defer the actual administrative costs, which the Company states will vary based on actual participation in the tariff.

In addition, the Company proposes to include electronic payment fees charged by the Company's third-party payment processor in the Company's cost of service. Virginia-American states that if approved by the Commission, customers would not be required to pay these third-party fees in order to pay their bills from the Company.

Virginia-American states that it completed the acquisition of the water system of the Town of Waverly ("Waverly System") on May 17, 2022. The Company now proposes to establish a new rate schedule for service to customers served by the Waverly System effective June 1, 2024. The Company further proposes that the rates for the Waverly System be gradually adjusted over the course of two rate cases, with the first adjustment occurring in this proceeding, to transition into the statewide STP structure.

Virginia-American states that it completed the acquisition of the assets of E.L. Goddard, Inc. ("Goddard Systems"), on August 2, 2023. The Company proposes to move the rates in the Goddard Systems, which is part of the Company's Eastern District, to align with its statewide tariff proposed in this Application.

The Company states that on June 27, 2023, it filed a petition ("Cape Charles Petition") seeking authority from the Commission to acquire the water and wastewater systems of the Town of Cape Charles ("Cape Charles Systems"). Virginia-American states that if the Cape Charles Petition is approved, the Company proposes the water rates for the Cape Charles Systems be consolidated with the Company's statewide STP rates and the wastewater rates for the Cape Charles Systems be consolidated with the Prince William wastewater rates. The Company further proposes that at the time it closes on the acquisition of the Cape Charles Systems, the existing Cape Charles rates be made interim and then adjusted following a final order in this proceeding, with the difference between the existing Cape Charles rates and the final rates approved in this proceeding being refunded to customers with interest.

The details of these and other proposals are set forth in the Company's Application. Interested persons are encouraged to review the Company's Application, testimony and supporting exhibits for the details of these proposals.

TAKE NOTICE that the Commission may adopt rates, charges and/or terms and conditions that differ from those appearing in the Company's Application and supporting documents and may apportion revenues among customer classes and/or design rates in a manner differing from that shown in the Application and supporting documents.

The Commission entered an Order for Notice and Hearing in this proceeding that, among other things, scheduled a public hearing on the Application. The Commission noted that the proposed revenue requirement, if approved, would result in an increase to customer bills. Pursuant to Code § 56-238, the Commission suspended Virginia-American's proposed rates and permitted Virginia-American to implement the proposed rate increase on an interim basis, subject to refund with interest, on and after May 1, 2024. The Commission did not permit the proposed consolidated service connection fee, the RDM or the universal affordability tariff to be implemented on an interim basis.

On September 24, 2024, at 10 a.m., the Hearing Examiner will hold a telephonic portion of the hearing, for the purpose of receiving the testimony of public witnesses. On or before September 18, 2024, any person desiring to offer testimony as a public witness shall provide to the Commission (a) your name, and (b) the telephone number that you wish the Hearing Examiner to call during the hearing to receive your testimony. Roy Bailey Jr.

Mr. Roy Lee Bailey Jr., 89, passed away surrounded by loved ones on Wednesday, Jan. 10, 2024. Born Oct. 8, 1934, in Sanford, he was the son of the late Roy Lee Bailey Sr. and the late Nellie Hickman Bailey.

Roy was a true patriot, hard worker, and family man. He worked as a truck driver for Holly Farms, Tyson Foods, and later retired from Perdue. He served his country in the U.S. Army. Forever involved in the community, he was a member of Central Masonic Lodge #300, A.F. & A.M. As a Christian, Roy was a dedicated member of St. Thomas UMC.

Fall found him in the woods hunting and shooting guns. Forever the family man, he spent his winters pulling the kids on a sled in the snow. In his final season of life, he leaves a beautiful legacy of family, community, and love of nature.

He leaves to cherish his memory his wife of 62 years, Brenda Colonna Bailey; children, Pam Bailey Linton (Glenn) of Newark, Md., and Alan Bailey (Suzie) of Kilmarnock; grandchildren, Nikki Lewis Zervakos (Josh), Dustin Lewis (Martha), Katie Linton, and Grace Bailey; great-grandchildren, Kaylin, Jace, Harper, Rebecca, and William; several nieces and neph-

Whether you called him by his given name, "Ed," "Jersey Ed," or "Vern," you'd always get the same "down-to-earth, tell 'em like it is," person. Following high school, Ed enlisted in the U.S. Air Force and was assigned to the aircrew egress team, where he found his first love working on F16s.

Upon honorable discharge, he began a career as a commercial waterman. He lobstered off the coasts of New Jersey and New York, later moving to the Eastern Shore of Virginia, where he crabbed in the Chesapeake Bay. After many decades hauling pots, Ed found his true passion in woodworking.

Beyond his talents, Ed frequently gave back to his community. He was a volunteer firefighter in Highlands, N.J., and he coached baseball for Central Accomack Little League and Broadwater Academy. He enjoyed giving back where he could, and over the years several of his woodworking pieces were donated for fundraising auctions to benefit area nonprofits.

As a child, she showed an appreciation for music while learning to play piano at Settlement Music School and would lull her children to sleep nightly as she filled her home with music.

In her youth she studied Commercial Art at Murrell Dobbins Vocational High School, but she was always a very artistic woman who sketched, painted, used pastels, did etchings, enjoyed carving tooled and dyed leather, and more. Her artwork was available at many locations up and down the Eastern Shore, and she always eagerly looked forward to participating in the annual Plein Air Art Show on the island.

She taught herself how to play the guitar and learned to play bridge and mahjong, amongst other things. For many years, she belonged to the American Legion Ladies Auxiliary post 159, where she also volunteered as chaplain for some time. Until her death, she was a member of the Red Hats and the Chincoteague Island Decoy Carvers and enjoyed spending time with her friends at the Manna Café on the island.

For many years, she worked as a full-time occupational therapist at the Blessed John Neumann Nursing Home in Philadelphia, where she also organized and operated a gift shop in her spare time. Somehow, she even managed to play the organ for mass in their chapel on Sundays and holidays. The saying goes, “if you need something done, ask a busy person because they know how to delegate their time,” and such was the way with her life. She was always busy but somehow was never too busy for what needed to be done.

Other than her parents, Marion was predeceased by her beloved husband, Philadelphia Police Department Chief-Inspector William C. McDonough Jr.; her son, William Patrick McDonough; her great-grandson, Edmond Nathaniel “Nate” DiFulvio; brother-in-law, Miles Swartz; her sister, Charlene Erb; brother-in-law, Chris Erb; and nephew, Douglas Herb.

She is survived by her sisters, Nancy Rosenberger and her husband, Raymond, and Margaret Swartz and her daughter, Laura McDonough; her son, Glenn McDonough; her granddaughter, Anita Howard LeMay and her husband, Max, of Clinton, Wash.; her granddaughter, Lisa DiFulvio and her spouse, Brittany Hardstock; her great-grandsons, Ethan and Xander DiFulvio, of Bloxom; two fixed feral cats, three Moscovy ducks, many generations of Canada geese, pigeons, and purple martins that she loved, housed, and fed for years that shall surely miss her.

A private celebration of life will be held at a future date. Donations can be made to a charity of your choice in her name if you so choose.

Agnes Hancock

Mrs. Agnes West Hancock, 102, of Onancock, passed away on Jan. 12, 2024. She was born in Onancock on June 13, 1921, a daughter of the late Harold Parker West and the late Mildred Dix West.

Until the last few weeks, she was physically active, mentally sharp, lived alone independently, and took pleasure in life.

Agnes was more than a resident of Onancock; she was a part of it. She was born at 3 Lee Street, grew up there, and began her education in kindergarten at Ker Place. In 1939 she graduated from Onancock High School and completed her secondary education at Stuart Hall in Staunton. She completed her schooling with a two-year elementary education program at Stratford College (now defunct) in Danville.

Her first job was as a first grade teacher on Chincoteague. She contracted scarlet fever while there and returned to Onancock. She would never leave again.

Upon her return to Onancock, she worked for Carroll Bull at the Farmer's Exchange, with her mother in Florida during the summers, and for a local attorney.

In 1957 Agnes married Wilson Hancock, a widower with one daughter, Ginny Lee. Sadly, Ginny Lee died in September 1958 of a congenital heart defect. Agnes and Wilson were married for 49 happy years until his death in June 2006. For many years Agnes was the sole caretaker of her mother until her mother's death in 1998 at the age of 101.

Mrs. Hancock

Agnes was a history buff interested in places and people.

She didn't just know a person; she knew all of the members of a family for three generations. She loved the Eastern Shore.

Agnes was of frail health as a child, but she never let it get her down. In fact she never let anything get her down. She was a happy person who lived a life rooted in her faith. She was an active member of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church her entire adult life.

Agnes sought to live her life in accord with nature. She loved gardening (her home was always filled with plants), exercising, and eating healthy, natural foods. She relished talking with other people, hearing their stories, and telling them hers. She was a social person, connecting with other people and they with her. She spread happiness.

Reflecting her interests, she was a member of the Accomack Garden Club, Friends of Onancock School, Eastern Shore Historical Society, the Museum of Chincoteague Island, The National Society of Colonial Dames of the 17th Century, and, as previously mentioned, Holy Trinity Episcopal Church.

She is survived by many loving relatives and friends.

A funeral service will be held on Saturday, Feb. 17, 2024, at 2 p.m., at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Onancock, with a reception to follow at the church Parish Hall. Interment will be private.

Chincoteague's Harper twins lead the Ponies

BY MARK MORING

Eastern Shore Post

When Jake and Jordan Harper go one-on-one in the family driveway, it can get a little feisty. What else would you expect from competitive twins?

But who wins these sibling showdowns? Depends on who you ask.

"Definitely me," says Jake. "I've got that winning record."

"I disagree on that," says Jordan. "But it's close when we play. He's better offensively, but I'm better defensively. It just depends who's on that day."

The Harpers, 6-foot-2-inch senior guards, have both been "on" this season for Chincoteague High School's boys basketball team, leading the Ponies to a 5-4 record heading into Thursday's Eastern Shore District game against visiting Northampton. The game ended too late to be included in this week's Post, but the Ponies felt ready to make a run at the district title after going 0-6 in the league a year ago.

Part of that is because of the Harper twins, who lead the team in scoring at 21 and 17 points per game, respectively. This is their third year playing on varsity together, and they both feel they're a better team than they were last winter.

"We're becoming better with each game," says Jake, a point guard. "We play with a lot of passion. We're playing good defense, and we're moving the ball better on offense. But we need to work on our rebounding and boxing out."

"As the season has gone on, we've gotten better, and the chemistry has gotten better," adds Jordan, a shooting guard. "I think we can contend for the district. We've got the players."

Coach Tim Johnson says his team is "playing much better as a team" than they did last year, when the Ponies went 6-9 overall. "We're moving the ball much better, and we've improved a lot on turnovers. We're never going to be the most athletic team running up and down the court, but we have to play fundamentally sound basketball."

It's been very much an up-and-down season for Chincoteague. They lost their season opener at Broadwater by just four points, and every game since has been lopsided, win or lose. Their five wins are by an average of 28 points, and their three losses (since the opener) are by an average of 31 points.

“I think we’ve learned something from both of those types of outcomes,” says Jake Harper. “When we lose big, there are obviously things we need to address. And when we win by a lot, we learn our strengths — plus we can bring bench players in and give them reps.”

“We’ve had some ups and downs,” says Johnson. “But we’re learning, trying to fine tune everything for the district schedule and then, hopefully, playoffs.”

When the Harpers graduate this spring, Jake hopes to go on to play college basketball, and Jordan, who was the Ponies’ quarterback, hopes to play football. Both are eyeing Division II and Division III schools.

Both agree it’s been a blast playing sports together all these years, from youth league through high school. And they’ll miss it.

“It’s been a blessing,” says Jake. “Since this is our last year, we want to make the most of it. Enjoying this one last ride together is dope.”

Still, there will be many more “rides” in the family driveway for years to come.

Supervisors support citizen menhaden regulations

BY STEFANIE JACKSON
Eastern Shore Post

Northampton supervisors on Tuesday, Jan. 9, unanimously approved a citizen-submitted resolution stating the county’s support of proposing state regulations for harvesting menhaden, a small, herring-like fish used in products such as fish oil health supplements, animal feed, and fertilizer.

The resolution states that “industrial Atlantic menhaden fishing should be prohibited within the waters of the Chesapeake Bay and three miles of all lands of the commonwealth” and the Virginia Marine Resources Commission should adopt this regulation.

Tom Burkett, a research and operations specialist for the University of Virginia at the Anheuser Busch Coastal Research Center in Oyster, presented the resolution to county supervisors on Jan. 9.

He clarified that the target of the proposed regulation is industrial menhaden reduction fisheries, so called because they conduct large-scale fishing operations and reduce, or process, their catch into fish-meal pellets or oils.

These large-scale fishing operations use spotter planes that locate schools of menhaden to be caught in massive “purse seine” nets.

Omega Protein is a Canadian-based company that owns an industrial menhaden reduction fishery in Virginia and exports products primarily to non-local economies.

About 90% of Virginia’s menhaden quota for 2023, or 101 million pounds, was caught by industrial fishermen.

Smaller-scale commercial fisheries, which catch menhaden to use as bait for crabbing and fishing, are not the target of the proposed regulation.

These fisheries are locally owned, support local economies, and redistribute their catch to the Chesapeake Bay food system, Burkett said.

About 10% of Virginia’s menhaden quota for 2023, or 11 million pounds, was caught by commercial fishermen.

A renewed focus on the impacts of industrial menhaden reduction fishing was prompted by three incidents in July 2022, two of which were documented by VMRC, in which thousands of dead and rotting fish washed up in several locations on the Eastern Shore.

Omega Protein claimed responsibility for the two documented fish spills.

Virginia is the only state on the East Coast that permits industrial menhaden reduction fishing in state waters.

Broadband project is nearing its completion

BY CLARA VAUGHN
Eastern Shore Post

A project to expand high-speed internet access to over 70% of Accomack and Northampton county homes is nearing completion.

"It is our goal to provide ubiquitous coverage across the Eastern Shore, and that's what we're going to continue to do," said Accomack County Administrator Mike Mason, speaking on behalf of the Eastern Shore of Virginia Broadband Authority during the Accomack County Board of Supervisors meeting Wednesday, Jan. 17.

"We're down to the final stages" of the project, which will bring broadband passings to about 72% of Eastern Shore homes, he said.

The Virginia Department of Housing and Community Development awarded $12.3 million for the broadband build-out project during its 2022 Virginia Telecommunications Initiative grant cycle.

Accomack and Northampton counties and the broadband authority provided an additional $3.3 million in matching funds for the VATI grant, which is bringing high-speed internet to 14 areas on the Shore.

In Accomack, buildout in Captains Cove and Greenbackville is nearly complete, Mason said, and crews have finished laying fiber optic cable in Sanford, Saxis, Hacksneck, and Harborton.

They are awaiting drier ground to finish laying cable in some of the remaining areas, he said.

Accomack and Northampton partnered with the Broadband Authority to apply for another VATI grant during the 2023 application cycle, but the group was not among the 14 applicants to receive funding across the state.

The partners plan to apply for funds again this year through the new Broadband Equity, Access, and Deployment Program, which was funded by the federal Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act that President Joe Biden signed into law in 2021.

"We see BEAD as a tremendous opportunity to try to complete that (buildout to 100% of homes on the Shore), and it will be the next target grant application that the (broadband) authority will be pursuing," Mason said.

Board of Supervisors Chair Robert Crockett added Accomack County has over $1 million set aside for the grant, which requires 25% in matching funds.

911 system upgrades

A new regional 911 radio system is expected to be operational within the year.

"We are operating on some older legacy systems that have coverage problems and are not meeting our needs," said 911 Director Jeff Flournoy in an update to the Accomack County Board of Supervisors on Wednesday, Jan. 17.

"The new radio system's going to benefit public safety and others here on the Eastern Shore," including sheriff's offices, police departments, and dispatch centers in both counties, he said.

The Eastern Shore of Virginia Regional Radio System upgrades have been several years in the making, after a 2019 study found the Shore's public safety communications infrastructure and operations were "inefficient at best and in a worst-case scenario, life-threatening."

The systems use different frequencies, and the study found deficiencies in coverage and interoperability between dispatchers as they transfer calls to the appropriate agencies for response.

Written comments can be submitted prior to the hearing via email to clerk@capecharles.org or placed in the external drop box at Town Hall. The proposed budget amendment will be discussed and brought to a vote during the regular meeting immediately following the public hearing. Budget amendment details may be viewed on the Town's website, www.capecharles.org under Agendas and Minutes/Town Council.

Request for budget appropriation increase for FY 2024 in the following amounts:

Fund	Revenue	Expenditures
General	$ 309,972.26	$ 309,972.26
Capital	$ (223,677.00)	$ (223,677.00)
Utilities	$ 4,200.00	$ 4,200.00
Harbor	$ (60,443.01)	$ (60,443.01)
	$ 30,052.25	$ 30,052.25

MID-YEAR BUDGET AMENDMENTS TO FEE SCHEDULE

The following amendments to the town fee schedule, originally adopted as part of the FY24 budget, are proposed:

1. The Town of Cape Charles Harbor uses a third-party processor to process credit card payments. A surcharge credit card fee or service fee not to exceed one and a half percent of the total amount being paid will apply to all American Express, Discover, Visa and MasterCard credit card transactions processed by Cape Charles Marine Services at the town harbor. This is a portion of the third-party service fee and does not represent revenue to the Town of Cape Charles.
2. Waiver of fees for nonprofit organizations, limited to $750 per project application — Effective beginning November 1, 2023, any nonprofit organization exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501 will be exempt from fees listed in "Town of Cape Charles – Building, Planning & Zoning Fee Schedule," up to the amount of $750 per project application. Waivers in excess of this amount may be granted, upon petition, at the discretion of Town Council.
